Official Form 410Proof of Claim*4/16

Read the instructions before filling out this form. This form is for making a claim for payment in a bankruptcy case. Do not use this form to make a request for payment of an administrative expense. Make such a request according to 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Filers must leave out or redact information that is entitled to privacy on this form or on any attached documents. Attach redacted copies of any documents that support the claim, such as promissory notes, purchase orders, invoices, itemized statements of running accounts, contracts, judgments, mortgages, and security agreements. Do not send original documents; they may be destroyed after scanning. If the documents are not available, explain in an attachment.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157, and 3571.

Attach Supporting Documentation (limited to a single PDF attachment that is less than 5 megabytes in size and under 100 pages):

I have supporting documentation.
(attach below)

I do not have supporting documentation.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim

United States Bankruptcy Court

12/15

These instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date the case was filed.
- Fill in the caption at the top of the form.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- Attach any supporting documents to this form.
Attach redacted copies of any documents that show that the debt exists, a lien secures the debt, or both. (See the definition of redaction on the next page.)

Also attach redacted copies of any documents that show perfection of any security interest or any assignments or transfers of the debt. In addition to the documents, a summary may be added. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (called “Bankruptcy Rule”) 3001(c) and (d).
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, do not disclose confidential health care information. Leave out or redact confidential information both in the claim and in the attached documents.

- A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, individual's tax identification number, or financial account number, and only the year of any person's date of birth. See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name and address of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent, 123 Main St., City, State). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <http://cases.primeclerk.com/gawker>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate.
11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy.
11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §503(b)(9): A claim arising from the value of any goods received by the Debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of the above case, in which the goods have been sold to the Debtor in the ordinary course of the Debtor's business. Attach documentation supporting such claim.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

3 COMPLAINT FOR DEFAMATION, INJURIOUS FALSEHOOD, AND INVASION OF

4 PRIVACY (FALSE LIGHT)

5 COMES NOW Plaintiffs Charles C. Johnson and Got News LLC,
6 by and through his undersigned counsel, and for his First
7 Amended Complaint against Defendants Gawker Media LLC,
8 ("Gawker"), J.K. Trotter ("Trotter") and Greg Howard ("Howard")
9 (collectively, "Defendants"), states as follows:

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 Because Plaintiffs are residents of the State of California
12 and have been injured in the State of California, the matter is 13 properly before this court.

15 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16 1. Plaintiff Charles C. Johnson is a journalist and the 17 president and owner of Got News, LLC, a media company which owns 18 Gotnews.com, a news and commentary website.

19 2. Plaintiff Charles C. Johnson has never before
20 initiated a lawsuit for defamation.

22 3. Defendant Gawker Media LLC, is a corporation organized 23 and existing under the laws of the state of Delaware with its 24 primary place of business located in New York, New York.

25 4. Defendant J.K. Trotter, upon information and belief,
26 is a resident of the state of New York.

28 5. Defendant Greg Howard, upon information and belief, is a resident of the state of New York.

1 6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants
2 Trotter and Howard were employed as journalists by Defendant
3 Gawker.

4 7. As a threshold matter, Plaintiff hereby incorporates
5 herein by reference, Exhibits 1-42 as if fully stated herein. An 6 index of exhibits is included after the signature block of this 7 Complaint.

8 8. As a threshold matter, unless specifically stated
9 otherwise, all factual allegations are upon information and 10 belief.

12 9. Defendant Gawker owns a family of tightly-linked,
13 internet-based media properties, with sub-brands that are each,
14 individually and collectively marketed by Gawker.

15 10. Among the media properties owned and marketed by 16 Gawker are Deadspin.com and Gawker's flagship site, Gawker.com.

18 11. Upon information and belief, the Gawker online media
19 properties have in excess of sixty-four million (64,000,000)
20 unique monthly readers in the United States.¹

21 12. Gawker had approximately 540,000 twitter followers in 22 December of 2014.

23 13. Per Quantcast, Gawker Media has over One Million
24 unique Missouri readers.

26 14. Gawker's media properties, such as the properties
27 mentioned above, contain a variety of content. For example,

28 ¹ <http://advertising.gawker.com/about/> last accessed June 17, 2015.

1 Deadspin.com is primarily a sports news and sports commentary
2 website. The remaining properties may have different topical
3 focuses, but each carries content primarily consisting of news
4 and commentary.

5 15. Gawker earns revenue, among other ways, by selling
6 advertising on its media properties.

7 16. Gawker has over a million readers in Missouri, as 8 evidenced Quantcast data showing Gawker.com's web traffic.

9 17. Gawker properties have endlessly written about the 10 Ferguson riots and related topics,¹ including publishing articles
11 highly critical of Plaintiffs' efforts in investigative 12 journalism regarding various "Ferguson" topics.²

13 18. Further, Deadspin.com, a Gawker media property
14 dedicated to sports, famously, viciously, repeatedly, and 15 continuously, attacked the St. Louis Cardinals recently.³

4 20. After working for a time as a reporter for the 5 Financial Times, Nick Denton founded Gawker in 2003.

6 21. Denton's goal was to change journalism by turning
7 ordinary people into content creators:²

9 Similarly, Denton admits that the journalistic standards of his blogs are lower 10 than those in traditional media. But, he says, that's the whole point of the 11 venture. "We go after sacred cows. We run stories on the basis of one anonymous
12 source, in many cases, and a bit of judgment. We put it out there. We make clear 13 the level of confidence we have in a story. We ask for help [from site visitors], we 14 ask for corroboration, we ask for denials. Every single story is a work in progress, 15 it's not meant to be final. It's like a reporter's notebook."

15 22. Concurrent with starting Gawker, Denton also began a 16 pornography blog (also featuring hardcore porn) called
17 "Fleshbot" which is part of the Gawker empire.

23 ¹For example, see Plaintiffs' Ex. 41, which is a screenshot taken by Plaintiffs' counsel when he visited gawker.com's home page (www.gawker.com) on Sunday, October 4, 2015. Note that there is an ad on the page marketing "Budweiser Brewery Experience SAINT LOUIS - This Tour's For You - BudweiserTours.com". This ad clearly is marketing to Plaintiffs' counsel because the gawker.com technology gurus have tracking tech which knows that Plaintiffs' counsel is a reader, viewing the site from St. Louis, Missouri.

1 23. Denton's first big hits were as a result of publishing
2 private sex tapes of public figures. For example, the infamous
3 Paris Hilton sex tape.¹

4 24. Denton told The Hollywood Reporter in 2013 in an 5 article entitled, "Gawker's Nick Denton Explains Why Invasion of 6 Privacy Is Positive for Society":²

7 THR: When you started Gawker, did you have an idea that you were going to change things?

8 Denton: Yeah. The basic concept was two journalists in a bar telling each other a story that's much more 9 interesting than whatever hits the papers the next day.

10 THR: Do you think journalists censor themselves?

11 Denton: Well, I used to think it had to do with legal reasons and people being too fearful of libel. But actually,
12 now I think the larger factor is a journalist's desire for respectability – not wanting to expose themselves, not 13 wanting to say, "Hey we've heard this, we're not completely sure whether it's true." People are talking about 14 this. We're just going to share with you as we would share with our colleagues what we have.

15 THR: What have you learned along the way?

16 Denton: We've removed a lot of obstacles to free journalism and yet –

17 Cook: There is still the desire to be right. That is still important to me and to everyone we work with. We want 18 to get it right. Our standards for getting it right are different from larger, more established institutions, and we do not just throw out every tip that we get on the site. We evaluate and report.

19 Denton: That is a disagreement between us. That's a disagreement between me and a lot of our journalists is 20 that I would like more of the tips to be published. Maybe not published under John's name but published under a tipster's name or under a tipster's anonymous handle. I would like them to be published.

22 25. The excerpt demonstrates the operating principle of

1 not Gawker has any possible way of establishing the truth or 2 falsity of the claim.

3 26. Denton has admitted that his site has lower
4 journalistic standards than "traditional media."

5 27. Nick Denton has made clear that Gawker relies upon 6 readers of his site to provide content for his site - in other
7 words, that his readers are collaborators on articles:¹

9 The future, Nick says, lies with what he calls iterative reporting, in which posts are used to 10 request information and to help stand up stories. 'As a print journalist, if you hear a rumour 11 you try to stand it up and if you can't the story dies,' he says. 'With a blog you can throw the rumour out there and ask for help. You can say: "We don't know if this is true or not."' What 12 about libel? 'We just have to make sure we're not doing it maliciously and that we also admit when we're wrong. Personally, as a print journalist, I always found the most 13 interesting stories to be the ones hacks talked about in the bar after work. Those are the ones we deal in.' He goes further, talking about how he wants his readers to be the source of stories, how they'll split page-view bonuses with them if the story runs. 'I want to 14 institutionalise and automate chequebook journalism.'

15 28. In 2006, Gawker initiated a feature on the site called 16 "Gawker Stalker,"² which allowed the readership of the website to 17 "crowdsource"³ the geographic locations of celebrities in "real-18 time."⁴

19 29. The feature tied-into Google Maps and allowed users to 20 pinpoint the locations, much to the terror of celebrities.

1 Despite obvious concerns for the safety of individual public
2 figures.¹

3 30. Denton was extremely pleased with the scandal
4 surrounding the new feature, because it made Gawker a great deal
5 of money.²

6 31. Specifically, Denton was pleased because subsequent to 7 the creation of Gawker Stalker, celebrities such as George
8 Clooney publicly attacked the feature because they feared being 9 stalked, generating free publicity, clicks, and traffic for 10 Gawker.

12 32. Kinja is a news content aggregator across Gawker
13 sites.³

14 33. It allows Readers as well as paid Gawker Staff to 15 create user profiles, chat real time, comment on news articles,
16 and create unique blogs - which can sometimes become so popular
17 by other users that Gawker will co-opt the blog and bring it
18 into the Gawker family.

20 34. In essence, Kinja removes virtually all distinctions
21 between paid staff content and unpaid staff content. And this is 22 by design, because it is part of Nick Denton's vision:⁴
23

25 ¹ Celebrities are already at high risk without Gawker creating a de facto GPS tracking device. By way of example,
John Lennon, born October 9, 1940, was shot and killed by a deranged fan.

1 Messaging applications are the standard for personal communication:
2 swift, stripped down and lively. Kinja is an effort to apply the same
3 qualities to public sites whether from Gawker writers, partner publishers or 4 solo bloggers. It is a collaborative journalism platform with the following feature at its heart, what we call the group chat.

5 Each group chat has an instigator, typically but not necessarily the blog
6 owner or one of their authors. The instigator can launch a topic with a news
7 or opinion piece with a headline; or just with a question to another user.

8 Even a long and exhaustive article should be just a starting point. Sites on 9 the latest Kinja template display subsequent discussion with the same
10 graphical treatment and respect as the author's starter post. The exchange
11 should read like a question-and-answer session, the classic web chat 12 format. We believe this conversational format will encourage the story to develop and the truth to be tested.

13 35. As the above excerpt demonstrates, Kinja is the 14 realization of Denton's dream of removing the barrier between 15 "author" and reader.

16 36. Gawker believes that the news will, long term, become 17 entirely dependent upon crowdsourcing:¹

19 (1) Crowd-sourcing / collaboration / socialization of everything

21 As with many other sectors, the news will become increasingly depending 22 on gathering information from every person possible, especially those who 23 have firsthand accounts of an event or those who are experts in the topic being discussion. How can we highlight and maximize this in our system?

25 37. Paid or unpaid by Gawker, all content creators are 26 statistically ranked by how much traffic they bring to Gawker's
27 sites.¹

1 38. J.K. Trotter and Greg Howard, paid content creators
2 for Gawker/Kinja as well as Defendants in this case, are ranked 3 at 97th and unranked, respectively.²

4 39. "Collin Krum," on the other hand, is an unpaid content
5 creator, as is Kevin Purdy, who are ranked 117 and 115
6 respectively.³

7 40. Collaboration between paid and unpaid content creators
8 is central to Gawker's media strategy, and crucial from both a 9 content creation standpoint as well as a marketing standpoint.

11 41. "Gawker executives introduced a "Kinja bonus," modeled
12 after the unique bonus,⁴ in an effort to boost writers'
13 engagement with the comments."⁵

14 42. To circumvent liability for anonymous tipsters, Gawker
15 has not only created tutorials for unpaid content creator
16 collaborators to leak information without fear of defamation
17 suit repercussions (see infra), but Gawker has actually
18 designed, as part of its Ninja platform, specific tools to avoid 19 liability for defamation actions - burner accounts and Gawker
20 SecureDrop.

6 a variety of alternatives for the would-be tipster to circumvent
7 liability for defamation.

8 45. In it, Trotter instructs tipsters to use Gawker's
9 "SecureDrop," and he hyperlinks to a Gawker site which carries a
10 "how-to" article specific to using "SecureDrop."²

12 46. In the case before this Court, the anonymous unpaid
13 content creator collaborator commenters at issue used "burner

6 based on false accusations, a hoax even.²

7 51. Even if true, Geithner was a limited public figure at 8 best.

9 52. There had been no previous public knowledge of 10 Geithner's sexuality as anything other than heterosexual.

12 53. Subsequent to the publication of the Gawker piece
13 purporting to "out" Geithner as a closet homosexual, other media
14 outlets began to scrutinize Gawker's reporting of the story.

15 54. The source of the article was the alleged gay
16 prostitute and porn star Leif Derek Truitt (porn alias Brodie 17 Sinclair) - a man the Gawker article referred to as "Ryan."

19 55. Other news outlets interviewed "Ryan" and revealed him
20 to be a deeply troubled man with paranoid delusions.³

6 62. Gawker founder Nick Denton, in explaining its decision
7 to take down the story, gave a non-apology apology, apologizing
8 merely for being insensitive, and for arguably participating in 9 "gay-shaming."³

10 63. Denton issued a weak-hearted apology, but also stated, 11 "The point of [the Geithner sex scandal story] was not in my 12 view sufficient to offset the embarrassment to the subject and

1 66. The fabricated articles Lawson referenced were a
2 series of articles he wrote which accused actor James Franco of 3 (a) being a closeted homosexual, and (b) having raped a man and 4 then paid the victim to keep him quiet.

5 67. The articles by Lawson are attached and incorporated
6 herein as Exhibits 3-7.

7 68. In a third article, entitled, "The People Have Spoken,
8 And They Think James Franco is a Rapist,"¹ Lawson concludes, 9 based upon the polling he did from the commenters in the 10 previous post, that James Franco is the rapist that The New York
11 Post was reporting on.

13 69. A month later, in a fourth article entitled, "'Gay
14 Rapist' Actor Surprisingly Cool About His Sexuality,"² Lawson
15 again revisited the topic:

17 Is James Franco gay or what? You'll remember there was that ominous
18 rumor that he once raped his gay lover that was sort of intense and icky.
19 We're told that the original tip that prompted the Page Six blind item, about 20 an actor who broke into his ex-boyfriend's house and sexually assaulted
21 him, mentioned Franco specifically. We received several other anonymous 22 (and admittedly questionable) emails saying the same thing, one providing 23 explicit details. So who the heck knows, but for whatever reason the rumor 24 had traction. Which makes us queasy. But now the actor is on the cover of 25 Out magazine this month, acting calm, collected, and confident in his heterosexuality, so we're all confused again. In the interview, he discusses

25 70. The excerpt above alleges several things:

27 ¹ Richard Lawson, "The People Have Spoken And They Think James Franco Is a Rapist," Gawker, August 22, 2008
(<http://gawker.com/5040524/the-people-have-spoken-and-they-think-james-franco-is-a-rapist> last accessed Oct. 10, 2015).

28 ² Richard Lawson, "'Gay Rapist' Actor Surprisingly Cool About His Sexuality," Gawker, September 29, 2008
(<http://gawker.com/5056330/gay-rapist-actor-surprisingly-cool-about-his-sexuality> last accessed Oct. 9, 2015).

- (a) that there was an ominous rumor that Franco once raped his gay lover;
 - (b) that Gawker, Lawson or both received some information from some source to suggest that the original New York Post article about the unknown actor come gay rapist was actually based on a "tip" from a source, and that in the original telling of the "tip" the actor-culprit was reported to be Franco;
 - (c) that Gawker, Lawson or both have received multiple anonymous emails which, although questionable in their reliability, nevertheless name Franco as the unknown gay rapist from the New York Post article;
 - (d) Lawson states that he doesn't know if the rumor about Franco is true, but that the rumor had "traction";
 - (e) that the rumor makes Lawson and possibly other Gawker staff "queasy"; and
 - (f) that Gawker staff or Lawson or both are uncertain as to Franco's true sexuality, given his decision to grace the cover of "Out" Magazine.¹

71. Lawson knew, because he fabricated the entire story, that any anonymous emails naming Franco as the gay rapist were not only questionable, but were actually false.

72. The tone of this article is one of reporting on actual events.

73. Despite directly expressing belief that Franco was a "gay rapist," Lawson's presentation of facts is deliberately misleading and was designed to perpetuate a rumor that Franco was a "gay rapist."

5 75. The article recounts anonymous tips that some unnamed
6 comedian - "our nation's most hilarious stand-up comic and 7 critically cherished sitcom auteur ... traps unsuspecting women in 8 his hotel room and makes them stick around until he's done
9 [masturbating]."

10 76. The article went on to give additional details, 11 recounting a story about the same unnamed comedian from the 12 "Aspen Film Festival a few years ago" wherein the unnamed 13 comedian trapped two women in a hotel room and forced them to 14 watch him masturbate.

15 77. Thereafter, as the article explains, the unnamed 16 comedian's "extremely powerful" manager contacted the women and 17 threatened to destroy their careers if they complained.

18 78. The article detailed attempts to reach out to one of 19 the unnamed victims, but the victim refused to comment, stating 20 only, "first of all, your facts are wrong. And secondly, I don't 21 want to be a part of this story. I'm sure you understand."²

1 79. Subsequently, in May of 2015, Gawker's subsidiary blog
2 website called "Defamer"¹ published an article written by Jordan
3 Sargent entitled, "Louis C.K. Will Call You Up To Talk About His 4 Alleged Sexual Misconduct."²

5 80. The article introduces an unnamed source given the 6 pseudonym "Jason."

7 81. "Jason" explained that two female friends of his had 8 been mistreated by Louis C.K., but the only incident described 9 by "Jason" is supposedly from 2014, wherein Louis C.K.
10 purportedly came up behind the one friend, grabbed her by the 11 back of the neck and whispered, "I'm going to fuck you."

12 82. On the basis of this, Jason is reported as having had 13 an email communication with Louis C.K.,³ wherein Jason accuses 14 C.K. of sexual assault and C.K. responds by asking Jason for his 15 telephone number.

16 83. The section written by paid-Gawker-content-creators
17 does not accuse Louis C.K. However, many anonymous, unpaid-18 content-creators (Kinja commenters) do name Louis C.K. in the 19 2012 article. In fact, the 2015 article cites as evidence,
20 comments by unpaid-content-creator-commenters on the 2012
21 article:

29 ³ The article published screenshots of the supposed emails with C.K. as well as the actual email address purportedly belonging to Louis C.K.

1 This was not the first allegation of sexual misconduct levied against C.K. In 2 March of 2012, we ran a blind item titled “Which Beloved Comedian Likes 3 to Force Female Comics to Watch Him Jerk Off?,” which described an 4 incident that had supposedly taken place in Aspen a few years prior 5 involving “our nation’s most hilarious stand-up comic and critically
6 cherished sitcom auteur” and two unnamed female comedians:

7 84. The article cites to “Barberaham Lincoln,” an 8 independent content creator who claims to have a great deal of 9 comedy industry insider knowledge, but without any 10 substantiation whatsoever.

11 85. The article closed by mentioning additional 12 unsuccessful attempts to corroborate the allegations as being 13 properly against Louis C.K. The attempts purportedly failed 14 because “Jason’s” female friends who were assaulted refused to 15 come forward, citing their fear of C.K.’s power in the comedy
16 industry.

17 86. The article says that thereafter, the two men had a 18 vacuous phone conversation, wherein, C.K. was “sizing [Jason]
19 up’ to ‘find out what I had heard.’”

20 87. The article closes with a call to action, asking 21 unpaid content creator commenters to comment with any 22 information they have.

23 88. The Louis C.K. articles compared with the previous 24 described ethical lapses, supra, represent a pattern at Gawker:
25 recklessly publishing sensational claims (e.g., rape, sexual 26 assault, serial rape and sexual assault) which carry the prospect of career destruction¹ on the basis of weak, unsubstantiated tips.

89. A further pattern is using their anonymous-unpaid-content-creator-commenters as sources in their own right, but which in effect amounts to Gawker citing to itself.

90. In this way, Gawker can be the source of the rumor, and then repeatedly earn revenue on subsequent articles based upon the rumor it itself initiated.

91. Gawker's sites offer readers, paid Gawker staff, and others an opportunity to create content on the individual web pages carrying stand-alone writings of a particular subject matter.

92. The stand-alone writings are consciously and deliberately initiated by journalists such as Defendants Trotter and Howard.

93. The only restrictions on the content created by the readers, is that readers cannot initiate the stand-alone writings, their content is placed on the webpage - first come, first serve - beneath the portion of the writing begun by the initiator, and their content creation is subject to being kept under a removable veil until "approval" by the initiator of the stand-alone writing.

94. Readers can, at their own option, lift the veil and view the content created by non-initiating content creators,

1 regardless of whether or not the stand-alone writing's initiator
2 approves or disapproves of the content.

3 95. In order to create content, a non-initiating content
4 creator must create a content creator profile titled under their 5 real name or under a pseudonym.

6 96. It is very common for non-initiating content creators
7 to create anonymous profiles, or even multiple anonymous
8 profiles.

9 97. It is very common for initiators of writings (such as 10 Defendants Howard and Trotter) to create content amongst other 11 non-initiating content creators, and to directly respond-to and 12 collaborate with non-initiating content creators, instigate and 13 solicit responses from non-initiating content creators, and 14 adopt the conclusions of or otherwise advertise or approve of 15 the content of non-initiating content creators as signified
16 through text content or by hyperlinking¹ to additional locations
17 on the same webpage or the webpages of other stand-alone
18 writings.

1 99. The Brown death and the Ferguson Riots were among the 2 top media stories in the St. Louis, Missouri media market for 3 2014.

4 100. The riots destroyed large swaths of Ferguson,
5 Missouri, nearly overran police positions on multiple occasions
6 and resulted in multiple US Department of Justice
7 investigations, public official firings, and additional riots
8 throughout the St. Louis region, such that the Missouri Governor
9 was forced to dispatch more than 2,000 National Guardsmen.

11 101. Johnson personally traveled throughout the St. Louis
12 region to report on events and also sources within local law
13 enforcement and in various places regionally, who assisted him
14 in his reporting.

15 102. Local and national law enforcement sources provided
16 Johnson with credible information which suggested that Michael 17 Brown, as a juvenile, was implicated in a murder.

19 103. As a result of these leads, Johnson has invested tens 20 of thousands of dollars in trying to convince Missouri courts to 21 unlock Michael Brown's juvenile records.

22 104. In pursuit of this objective, Johnson has filed
23 multiple lawsuits in multiple Missouri Circuit Courts.

25 105. Upon ultimately being denied by the juvenile court of 26 St. Louis County in mid-September 2014, Johnson temporarily
27 halted his pursuit.

2 part of the grand jury evidence, Plaintiffs resumed the legal
3 battle for the records by appealing the denial to the Missouri
4 Court of Appeals for the Eastern District of Missouri in late
5 November, 2014.

6 107. On or about December 4, 2014, a preliminary writ was 7 granted by the Court of Appeals, but the writ was ultimately 8 permanently denied on December 18, 2014.

9 108. In May of 2015, Johnson appealed the records denial to 10 the Missouri Supreme Court, which ultimately denied him the 11 records.

12 109. As a result of his reporting, and his exposure of 13 facts which did not fit the common and hackneyed narrative
14 pushed by Gawker¹ and other media entities external to St. Louis,
15 Missouri, Plaintiffs became a very popular news and opinion
16 website for readers in the St. Louis Region, which is shown by 17 data tracking Plaintiff GotNews' website's traffic.

18 110. Plaintiffs' reputation amongst St. Louisans became 19 very positive and Plaintiffs' brand, goodwill, and website 20 traffic, all surged, as evidenced by a sudden increase in 21 Plaintiffs' web traffic.

4 112. Gawker staff first began to track the career of 5 Plaintiff Charles Johnson during the summer of 2014.¹

6 113. Johnson is generally of a different ideological
7 persuasion than the Defendants.²

8 114. On December 4, 2014, Defendant Greg Howard published 9 an article entitled, "Charles Barkley Has Nothing to Say to 10 America."³

12 115. In his article, Howard stated:

13 This conversation is over; there is not debate to be had about the killing 14 of Eric Garner, and there really isn't one to be had on the degradation, 15 imprisonment, and systemic murder of minorities. It is a system of 16 control, a machine, doing the work it was designed to do. Those who 17 blame its workings on its victims, invoking black pathologies and 18 enumerating all the ways in which black people need to become better
19 and more moral to earn the right to complain about being killed 20 without their killers even facing any consequences, are engaging in an old, tired respectability politics. They don't know what the fuck they're talking about.

21 Charles Barkley does not know what the fuck he's talking about.

24 Howard engaged in an extensive dialogue with an independent

12 Nah, I mean this very seriously. There aren't two sides to this. If you think 13 there are, you are wrong. If you find someone who thinks there are, they are 14 wrong, too. I don't care if they're black or white. W.E.B. DuBois was wrong.
15 Angela Davis was wrong. This isn't a debate. That said, you have a great day.

19 See Ex. 40, Amended Complaint for the entire exchange.

20 117. On December 5, 2014, one day after Defendant Greg 21 Howard published his the article described immediately above,
22 Plaintiffs published an article on the Gotnews website entitled,
23 "BREAKING: GotNews Wins First Stage of Appeal on Michael Brown
24 Records, #Ferguson."¹

25 118. In retaliation, on December 9, 2014, Defendants Howard 26 and Trotter published three defamatory articles designed to 27 malign and humiliate Plaintiffs.

28 _____
29 ¹ Gotnews, December 5, 2014 (<http://gotnews.com/breaking-gotnews-wins-first-stage-appeal-michaelbrown-records-ferguson-ericgarner/> last accessed, Oct. 9, 2015).

119. On or about the morning of December 9, 2014, Defendant
1 Trotter composed, published, and initiated, a stand-alone
2 writing entitled, "What Is Chuck Johnson, and Why? The Web's
3 Worst Journalist, Explained," (referred to hereafter as "Trotter
4 First").¹

120. In the article, Trotter maliciously characterizes Johnson as a racist, as well as using malicious paraphrasing to suggest that Johnson is a racist.

121. In Trotter First, Defendant Trotter defamed, cast in a false light, and injured Plaintiffs by proceeding to attempt to show how Plaintiff Johnson was the "web's worst journalist," by juxtaposing Plaintiff Johnson's journalistic professionalism alongside screenshots (provided with no accompanying context) of defamatory, false, and injurious Twitter postings ("tweets") made by various persons, each of which openly requested that Twitter, Inc. staff permanently ban Plaintiffs from posting on twitter.com, and which defamed Plaintiffs by alleging, inter alia, that Plaintiffs were "stalking," "[h]arass[ing]," and otherwise "endanger[ing]," other individuals.

122. In Trotter First, Defendant Trotter defamed, cast in a false light, and injured Plaintiffs by stating that Johnson drew attention to himself as a result of his flawed reporting in the Senate Republican Primary race in Mississippi. ("he's drawn attention for his (flawed) reporting in the Senate Republican

1 primary race in Mississippi"). As a further proof of the 2 allegation of "flawed" reporting, Trotter linked to another news
3 article, which itself drew no conclusion and offered no proof of 4 error in Johnson's reporting in the Senate Republican Primary
5 race in Mississippi.

6 123. In Trotter First, Defendant Trotter defamed, cast in a 7 false light, and injured Plaintiffs by paraphrasing a quote by 8 Johnson, misleadingly stating that Johnson really meant that the 9 deceased Michael Brown, Jr., who was killed by Ferguson, 10 Missouri police officer Darren Wilson, "deserved to die" because 11 he was African American.¹ Trotter would go on to call this 12 "racist."

14 124. Importantly, Trotter is attacking Johnson's ability as 15 a journalist, directly accusing him of falsely reporting in an 16 article that senate candidate (for New Jersey) Cory Booker
17 didn't actually reside in New Jersey at the time of his 18 candidacy (thereby rendering him ineligible, if true). Trotter
19 cites to another article² as evidence that Booker did in fact 20 live in New Jersey, and thus proof that Johnson falsely 21 reported.

23 125. However, the article Trotter cites to is itself
24 inconclusive on the matter.

(<http://www.buzzfeed.com/rubycramer/cory-booker-yes-i-live-in-newark#.lmZ115Wm1> last accessed Oct. 9, 2015).

1 126. In Trotter First, Defendant Trotter defamed, cast in a
2 false light, and injured Plaintiffs by stating that Johnson is,
3 "well-known for publishing stories that fall apart under the 4 slightest scrutiny. The list of Johnson stories that have been
5 proven wrong is long, but his greatest hits include: ...
6 [e]rroneously reporting that former Newark Mayor Cory Booker
7 didn't actually reside in Newark¹ ... Contributing reporting to the 8 Daily Caller's infamous story about New Jersey Senator Bob 9 Menendez allegedly soliciting prostitutes in the Dominican 10 Republic. The Story turned out to be a complete fabrication,² and 11 may have even been planted by the Cuban government."

13 127. Johnson's article was not a lie, not a fabrication, 14 and in fact the Senator has been indicted (March 6, 2015) by the 15 Department of Justice on 14 counts, including corruption
16 charges.³
17

18 128. The Department of Justice reports that the allegations
19 of sex with underage prostitutes in the Dominican Republic has 20 been corroborated.⁴

22 _____
23 ¹ Defendant Trotter offered as proof, a link to a "Buzz Feed News" article which itself drew no conclusions and simply reported the perspectives of competing viewpoints. See Ruby Cramer, "Cory Booker: Yes, I Live in Newark," Buzz Feed News, October 14, 2013, <http://www.buzzfeed.com/rubycramer/cory-booker-yes-i-live-in-newark#.dyPmMdGDX> last accessed June 17, 2015.

24 ² Here again, as supposed proof, Trotter inserted a link to an ABC News online article which simply reported on the controversy surrounding Senator Menendez and proffered no conclusions one way or another. See Rhonda Schwartz, Brian Ross and Ned Berkowitz, "The Menendez Prostitution 'Scandal': How It Happened." ABC News, 26 ⁴ Id.

1 129. Trotter cites as proof that Johnson fabricated - that
2 is, completely invented - the Menendez story, an article by ABC
3 News,¹ which does not reach a conclusion and at best for Trotter,
4 merely expresses doubt about Johnson's allegations in his 5 article.

6 130. Trotter, on the other hand, reports that conclusively,
7 Johnson lied and made up the entire article.

9 131. Trotter cited no other sources to support his 10 statement that Johnson had fabricated the story about Senator
11 Menendez.

12 132. In Trotter First, a number of anonymous, non-13 initiating content creators defamed, falsely portrayed, and 14 injured Plaintiffs.

15 133. Shortly after the initial section of Trotter First was 16 published on gawker.com, several of such anonymous content
17 creators published defamatory content on Trotter First.

19 134. One such anonymous content creator, "Cmcalumna,"
20 claimed to have attended college with Johnson.

21 135. Though she is anonymous, she suggests she has special
22 knowledge of Johnson: "Hilariously, he graduated being best 23 known for pooping on the (I think I'm remembering the floor 24 right) 7th floor of Stark (a dorm)."

26

27

28 ¹ Rhonda Schwartz, Brian Ross and Ned Berkowitz, "The Menendez Prostitution 'Scandal': How It Happened," ABC News Online, March 6, 2013 (<http://abcnews.go.com/Blotter/robert-menendez-prostitution-scandal-happened/story?id=18664472> last accessed Oct. 9, 2015).

1 136. She then let slip her motivation for releasing such a
2 tidbit of information: "I'm sad this idiot is getting any 3 attention at all, but I hope this guy becomes famous for the 4 same reasons he was in college, his public pooping problems."

5 137. Cmcalumna published false information about Johnson on 6 Trotter First, cast him in a false light, and injured Johnson by 7 stating as a matter of fact that Johnson publicly defecated in 8 either the hallway or elevator of his dormitory in college.

10 138. Defendant Trotter incited and solicited additional 11 false, injurious and defamatory comments from Cmcalumna as well
12 as other content creators on Trotter First.

13 139. When another unpaid-content-creator asked Cmcalumna to 14 "elaborate on the poop story," Cmcalumna replied, at 1:05pm on 15 December 9, 2014,¹ that since she started at college two years
16 after Johnson, she didn't actually have any basis of knowing 17 whether or not Johnson had publicly defecated. Rather, she 18 simply described upper-classmen talking about it "regularly" but 19 yet that it was an "undisputed fact that he did it."²

20 140. At 1:44 p.m. on December 9, 2014,³ anonymous unpaid-
21 content-creator "CCJ Facebook Friend" published a discussion
22 directed at J.K. Trotter, in which he claims to faithfully
23 reproduce, from Johnson's Private, invite-only Facebook account
24 page, a letter written by Johnson and posted on Johnson's

Facebook wall for dissemination to former classmates of his on Facebook. "This is from his Facebook account late last night. I don't know how to screenshot the whole thing."¹

141. Notably, the letter posted by CCJ Facebook Friend is exactly the same as the one Greg Howard would publish two hours later in his post on Deadspin.

142. Greg Howard did not have access to Johnson's Facebook page, because they were not Facebook friends.

143. On December 10, 2014,² Trotter would respond to CCJ Facebook Friend, seeking additional leads, information, collaboration: "Are there any other comments on that Facebook post?"

144. Some anonymous content creators begged Defendant Trotter to write an article about the defamatory matters discussed by Cmcalumna, but Trotter informed the individual that Defendant Howard had already written, and initiated/published, on or about the afternoon of December 9, 2014, a stand-alone writing on deadspin.com, entitled, "Wait, Did Clowntroll Blogger Chuck Johnson Shit On The Floor One Time?" (hereafter, "Howard First").³

4 it" is hyperlinked and links to Greg Howard's "clowntroll"
5 article.

6 146. On December 9, 2014 (at 4:20 p.m.), Trotter posted
7 another article entitled, "The Daily Caller Can't Quit Chuck
8 Johnson."²

9 147. In the article, Trotter repeatedly states that Johnson
10 wrote false stories.

12 148. In Trotter Second, Defendant Trotter defamed, cast in 13 a false light, and injured Plaintiffs reporting that Johnson
14 contributed to a false story about New Jersey Senator Bob 15 Menendez supposedly soliciting prostitutes in the Dominican
16 Republic."³

18 149. Between 2:00 p.m. and 2:14 p.m. on December 9, 2014,
19 Greg Howard emailed Charles Johnson and asked various questions:⁴

3 150. At 2:06 p.m. on December 9, 2014,² Johnson responded:
4 "Run it in its entirety. Don't do me like you did Cory Gardner,
5 though."

6 151. At 2:14 pm. on December 9, 2014,³ Johnson emailed 7 Howard, stating, "Oh, and the comments about me shitting on the 8 floor were made up," - referencing the Cmcalumna discussion post
9 earlier at 12:30 pm and 1:05p.m. on the Trotter article.

11 152. At 2:20 p.m. on December 9, 2014,⁴ Howard again emailed 12 Johnson: "If you have time, we got a tip that you had a 2002
13 bestiality charge expunged from your record because you were a 14 minor at the time. Is this true?"

15 153. Prior to Defendant Howard publishing Howard First, 16 Plaintiff Johnson emailed Defendant Howard and categorically
17 denied that incident that was the basis for the article's title
18 ever occurred.

20 154. At 4:00 p.m., Greg Howard initiated/ "instigated" his 21 piece, "Wait, Did Clowntroll Blogger Chuck Johnson Shit On The 22 Floor One Time?"⁵

23 155. The article includes references to anonymous rumors
24 that Johnson publicly defecated in college: "there are cryptic

1 comments from friends and former classmates about some
2 mysterious floor-shitting incident." Howard then proceeded to 3 solicit additional tips, photos, and context from additional 4 Kinja content-creators.

5 156. In Howard First, Defendant Howard also created content
6 amongst other non-initiating content-creators, soliciting
7 information from them as well as adopting and advertising
8 defamatory content published by Cmcalumna on the Trotter First 9 website, encouraging other readers and content creators to view
10 the defamatory statements by hyperlinking to Cmcalumna's
11 published content. ("I'll tell you what. There is some good-ass
12 kinja to be had re: Chuck shitting on the floor one time over at 13 Gawker [hyperlink inserted into the text]).

15 157. "Kinja" refers to Gawker's proprietary social-media,
16 media content aggregating tool that readers, content creators
17 and others use to collect and view content created on various 18 Gawker media property websites.

20 158. The phrase "good-ass kinja" refers to high quality
21 content that readers, content creators, and others would be 22 advised to view.

24 159. Stating that particular content is "good-ass kinja," 25 as well as instantly providing the link to said content, serves
26 as express endorsement of the linked content, and Defendant
27 Howard intended to direct as many readers as possible to view
28 the defamatory content.

1 160. By adopting, endorsing, advertising, responding to,
2 interacting with, and directing additional content-creators,
3 readers, and others to such defamatory, false, misleading, and 4 injurious content created by a non-initiating content creator,
5 Defendants Howard and Gawker formally adopted and are liable
6 for, all of Cmcalumna's content published on Trotter First and 7 Howard First.

8 161. Instead of basing his reporting of the public
9 defecation on discussion posts on Trotter's article, Howard
10 misrepresents that he saw such allegations on Johnson's Facebook
11 page. "Sure enough, on the Facebook post, there are cryptic
12 comments from friends and former classmates about some 13 mysterious floor-shitting incident."¹

14 162. However, as mentioned, Howard doesn't have access to 15 this page. And in any event there were no comments made on 16 Johnson's Facebook page during this time that referenced or 17 alleged public defecation.²

18 163. Howard lied about his source.

19 164. To give the accusations greater weight, Howard
20 reported that he saw them on Johnson's Facebook wall.

21 165. Howard closed out his article by smearing and defaming
22 Johnson further: "...[H]e's been caught lying many times before..."³

25
26
27 ¹ See Plaintiff's Ex. 14.

28 ² See Plaintiffs' Ex. 37. These screenshots evidence that Howard lied about where he saw the floor defecating comments, as there were no floor defecation comments on Johnson's Facebook page.

29 ³ See Plaintiff's Ex. 14.

1 166. Howard provides no evidence of Johnson having ever
2 lied, nor does he provide any evidence that Johnson was ever
3 caught lying.

4 167. At 4:34 p.m. on December 9, 2014,¹ Gawker writer Jordan
5 Sargent posts a discussion post directed at Greg Howard on the 6 “clowntroll” article, stating, “This guy shitting on the floor
7 is a very apt metaphor for why he’s in the news now.”

9 168. At 5:09 p.m. on December 9, 2014,²
10 ChekhovsGum(ItsGonnaPop!) wrote a discussion post on the First 11 Trotter article, and directed at Cmcalumna: “I have heart
12 breaking news, team, there was never any proof that he actually 13 was the one who pooped on the floor. Someone did poop on the 14 floor and just to sort of troll the Mountain King himself, 15 people started posting that he pooped. It was one of those 16 things no one could proof or disprove ... but alas it’s not 17 really true.”

19 169. At 10:26 p.m. on December 9, 2014,³ Cmcalumna wrote a
20 discussion post on Howard’s Deadspin “clowntroll” article, 21 replying to Greg Howard’s previous discussion post (“...There is 22 some good-ass kinja to be had re: chuck shitting on the floor
23 one time over at Gawker”) in which she clarifies that she has no
24 proof of the defecation incident having occurred: “I think you
25 made my year by writing an entire article based on my comment.

29 ³ See J.K. Trotter, entitled “The Daily Caller Can’t Quit Chuck Johnson,” published by gawker.com on December 9, 2014, available online at <http://gawker.com/the-daily-caller-can-t-quit-chuck-johnson-1668910086>.

I'd give anything to have some proof, but I wasn't there when it occurred ... I am so glad when someone googles his name this will appear. I hope him pooping in stark [dorm] follows him forever, just goes to show you how important it is to use a bathroom (and not be an asshole your entire life)." (emphasis added).

170. Cmcalumna had no proof, therefore, that Johnson publicly defecated, but yet she was extremely pleased that Howard wrote his article based upon her comment.

171. Later in the day on or about December 9, 2014, after Defendant Howard had published content directing viewers to Cmcalumna's defamatory, false, and injurious content, Cmcalumna
published additional content as a direct response to Defendant Howard's publication (i.e., "There is some good-ass kinja to be had...").

172. On December 9, 2014, sometime shortly after Cmcalumna initiated the rumor about public defecation, the first "tweet" was published on Twitter. See Plaintiffs Ex. 8.

173. Also on December 9, 2014, sometime after instigating his article, Howard himself tweeted on Twitter:¹ "We need answers: Wait, Did Clowntroll Blogger Chuck Johnson Shit On The Floor One Time?" He then posted a link to the article he instigated.

1 174. Defendant Howard would have been uniquely and 2 particularly made aware of Cmcalumna's publication on the 3 writing Howard had initiated.

4 175. Plaintiff Johnson repeatedly requested that Defendant
5 Howard publically retract his defamatory statements, but 6 Defendant Johnson refused.

7 176. When Cmcalumna ultimately posted a discussion post
8 reply directly to Howard, informing him in no uncertain terms
9 that she had absolutely no basis of knowledge as to whether or 10 not Johnson publicly defecated, Howard still refused to print a 11 retraction.

13 177. On December 12, 2014, at 12:42 p.m.,¹ Trotter emailed 14 Charles Johnson: "Hi Charles, I'm a reporter at Gawker, and I'm 15 writing because we've received a pair of allegations involving 16 you, and wanted to give you an opportunity to address them.² The 17 second allegation is that, in 2002, you were photographed
18 sexually assaulting a sheep behind a family member's ranch in 19 San Bernardino County, near Wrightwood; that you were arrested
20 by the San Bernardino County Sheriff and later convicted of 21 this; and that, in 2007, you successfully petitioned to have 22 records of the incident expunged. Is this allegation true? The 23 sources for both claims supplied detailed accounts of each of 24 the incidents described above. Please let me know if you have any other questions, or if you need any other information to address these allegations. My working deadline is midnight EST, but that is flexible, so please let me know if you require more time."

178. Johnson responded:¹ "Neither story is true. I honestly have no idea where these crazy stories come from."

179. On December 12, 2014, at 4:08 p.m.,² Trotter would follow up with Johnson: "The first story comes from a person who says they were physically present, and personally witnessed the conversation. We've verified that this person attended Claremont with you. This person provided a very specific account of the incident. The second story comes a person [sic] who is friends with an officer in the San Bernardino County Sheriff, who is familiar with the details of the alleged assault. Apparently the incident has become fairly well-known within that county's law enforcement circles. Again, I just wanted to get your input before putting anything up. I'm fairly sure you understand that."

180. On or about December 15, 2014, Trotter wrote, published, and initiated a writing entitled, "Which of These Disgusting Chuck Johnson Rumors are True?" (hereafter, "Trotter Third").³

1 181. Also on December 15, 2014,¹ Greg Howard published on
2 his Twitter social media account a hyperlink to Trotter's
3 instigated article ("Which of These Disgusting Rumors...") and 4 stating: "Torn. I kinda feel like sheepfucking is something you
5 grow into. On the other hand, [Charles Johnson] is a prodigy."

7 182. In Trotter Third, Defendant Trotter presented
8 disgusting rumors which were not items of public concern prior 9 to Defendants collective creation, collaboration, publication
10 and incitation.

11 183. In Trotter Third, in which Defendant Trotter describes 12 the initiated writing as a "RUMORMONGER[ING]"² published writing,
13 Trotter defamed, misleadingly and falsely portrayed, and injured
14 Plaintiff Johnson by heavily quoting from Cmcalumna's false and 15 defamatory content published in Trotter First, wherein Cmcalumna
16 stated that she knew from either personal knowledge or from 17 other certain, undisclosed evidence, that Johnson defecated in 18 public.

20 184. Specifically, Trotter stated, "there is no evidence of 21 Chuck Johnson took a shit on the floor in college. Chuck Johnson 22 was, however, so thoroughly disliked in college that his 23 classmates chose to blame an unattributed shit on him."
24

25 185. Trotter also stated, "There is no evidence that Chuck
26 Johnson was arrested in 2002 for pinning a sheep to a fence and

28 ¹See Plaintiffs' Ex. 1.

²Rumermonger: a person who spreads rumors. <http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/rumormonger> last accessed June 17, 2015.

1 fucking it. Johnson is, however, the kind of guy about whom 2 random people make up and circulate rumors about him being 3 arrested in 2002 for pinning a sheep to a fence and fucking it."

4 186. However, similar to Lawson's conclusions in the fourth
5 "gay rapist" James Franco article, Trotter suggests the 6 bestiality and public defecation rumors might be true, because 7 it cannot be confirmed or denied, but stated, "A search through 8 public records and the archives of local newspapers did not turn
9 up any mention of an arrest matching the one our source
10 described. (This does not necessarily mean that the arrest
11 didn't occur, though; editors don't necessarily publish all
12 incidents involving the police, and public records databases
13 would not contain an expunged record.)"

14 187. After instrumentally generating minor interest at 15 least as to the rumor of public defecation, Defendant Trotter
16 concocted a false, misleading, pseudo-journalistic device to 17 make it appear to a casual viewer that he was merely reporting
18 on a pre-existing matter of public concern. ("You may have read
19 The New York Times' profile of Charles C. Johnson, the worst 20 journalist on the internet. You also may have seen several very 21 elaborate, very unbelievable, and very gross rumors about 22 Johnson's past misdeeds floating around Twitter and Facebook. So 23 maybe you're wondering: Which of those rumors are real?").
26
27
28

1 188. In Trotter Third, Defendant Trotter reported that 2 Defendant Howard had previously written about allegations of 3 public defecation as against Johnson.

4 189. Discussing a rumor ("Rumor 1: Johnson shit on the 5 floor in college"), Defendant Trotter then reported that two of 6 Johnson's college classmates, writing anonymously on Gawker,¹ had 7 stated as a matter of fact that Johnson had defecated publicly 8 at college. Trotter then purported to quote from, and 9 hyperlinked to, various publications on Trotter First by two 10 anonymous, non-initiating content-creators: Cmcalumna and 11 ChekhovalGum(ItsGonnaPop!).

13 190. However, Defendant Trotter acknowledged that 14 ChekhovalGum(ItsGonnaPop!) did not make such a statement about 15 public defecation actually occurring. Rather,
16 ChekhovalGum(ItsGonnaPop!) stated that while some person did in 17 fact defecate in the dormitory, several years ago, it was not 18 Johnson, and that any attribution to Johnson was out of extreme 19 spite.

21 191. Thus, as evidenced by the writing in Trotter Third,
22 Defendant Trotter's only basis upon which to base his reporting
23 were the publications of a single, anonymous content creator
24 (Cmcalumna), made on an article Trotter himself had initiated
25 and published.

27

28 ¹ Trotter describes them as being classmates of Johnson, but does not describe the basis of his knowledge that they were, in fact, classmates of Johnson. Trotter also describes them as having used "burner" Gawker content creator profiles. A "burner" profile is slang for an anonymously created non-initiating content-creator account.

1 192. The manner in which Defendant Trotter wrote the 2 initiating portion of the writing was designed to give the 3 audience the impression that Defendants Trotter and Howard were 4 privy to special and hidden information, and this created an 5 atmosphere in which the rumors could be perceived as being more
6 true than false, even though Trotter and Howard had serious
7 reason to believe they were false.

9 193. For example, in Trotter Third, Defendant Trotter also 10 failed to report that Cmcalumna had, subsequent to stating that 11 it was "an undisputed fact" that Johnson had publicly defecated,
12 recanted that statement and other similar statements, directly 13 to Greg Howard.

14 194. Further, Trotter failed to mention that Cmcalumna had 15 expressed extreme hatred of Johnson and had deliberately defamed 16 him.

18 195. In Trotter Third, Trotter deliberately misattributed
19 and omitted facts in order to mislead readers into believing
20 there was a factual basis to the allegation that Johnson had 21 publicly defecated.

23 196. Thus, any reader would be left with the impression
24 that Johnson may have defecated publicly, even though Defendant
25 Trotter himself had reason to know that this was not the case.
26

27 197. In Trotter Third, Defendant Trotter also reported upon 28 the investigation he and Greg Howard had conducted into a "tip" that Johnson had "fucked a sheep."

1 198. Defendant Trotter wrote that his source had told him
2 that "Chuck had a 2002 bestiality charge expunged from his 3 record due to his being a minor, 14 at the time."

4 199. Similar to the previous rumor, Defendant Trotter did 5 not divulge any information about his source and the basis of 6 knowledge.

7 200. Defendant Trotter continues on to describe his attempt 8 to verify the allegations made in the "tip," and also describes 9 an additional tipster who called Defendant Howard on the 10 telephone and relayed a graphic allegation of Johnson having sex
11 with a sheep, and Trotter recounts the allegation at length with 12 enough detail to seemingly lend credence to the allegation.

14 ("[Johnson] was spotted attempting to copulate with his wool
15 sheep. The neighbor took pics with a telephoto lens, which,
16 since the cops didn't catch him mid-act, were used as the basis
17 for his conviction. He was pants-down, pinning the sheep against 18 the fence ... [Johnson] got it expunged in 2007 saying he was just 20 a kid experimenting").

21 201. Defendant Trotter also recounted that he and Defendant
22 Howard had contacted the San Bernardino County district
23 attorney's office seeking Johnson's juvenile records related to 24 the alleged charge of bestiality, and that a representative at 25 the juvenile division there said that the office could not 26 divulge information pertaining to individuals arrested and 27 charged as juveniles, "as Johnson allegedly was."

1 202. Important to note, Plaintiffs have come under intense,
2 hateful criticism for having sought the juvenile records of 3 Michael Brown, Jr.

4 203. Trotter Third is simply a play-by-play account of 5 reporting on largely self-created or incited rumors on matters
6 which at no point were a matter of public concern.

7 204. The Trotter Third content described above is false,
8 misleading, injurious, and intrinsically malicious and 9 defamatory.

10 205. Upon publication of the initiating segment of Trotter
11 Third, Defendant Howard published a statement using his Twitter
12 account (@greghoward88) to advertise, endorse, and direct viewer
13 traffic to Trotter Third. ("torn. i kinda feel like sheepfucking 14 is something you grow into. on the other hand, @chuckcjohnson is 15 a prodigy. [link to Trotter Second as well as screenshot of the 16 article]"

17 206. Trotter, Howard, and other Gawker paid content
18 creators communicated in the discussion/comments section of 19 Gawker articles and actively sought additional defamatory
20 statements to be published.

21 207. Gawker has a history of soliciting defamatory comments
22 from unpaid content creators and then using such defamatory
23 content as an excuse to publish "news" articles discussing the 24 merits of the incited rumors.

1 208. Gawker specifically attempts to utilize the nature of 2 the initiator of the defamatory content (i.e., the anonymous
3 unpaid content creator publishing on Gawker's articles) and 4 illusory non-agency of the same as a tool to attempt to 5 circumvent liability for the defamatory comments.

6 209. A significant number of Gawker's readers visit their 7 sites primarily to read the discussion/comments sections.

9 210. Defendant Howard's @greghoward88 Twitter account
10 reaches nearly thirteen thousand (13,000) individual followers
11 nationally, including numerous followers throughout Missouri.

12 211. Defendant Gawker's @gawker Twitter account is followed
13 by and reaches in excess of five hundred and thirty-eight 14 thousand (538,000) individuals.

15 212. On December 9, 2015, @gawker published a "tweet"
16 advertising Trotter Second.

17 213. On December 15, 2015, @gawker published a "tweet"
18 advertising Trotter One.

20 214. Defendant Mr. Howard has a long history of defaming
21 people whom he simply does not like or disagrees with.

22 215. Jason Whitlock is a competing sports writer (Mr.
23 Howard writes primarily for Deadspin.com a sports blog).

25 216. Mr. Howard and other deadspin writers have set out to 26 destroy Mr. Whitlock's reputation in a very similar way to their 27 attacks on Mr. Johnson.

1 217. They have fabricated stories about him and 2 mischaracterized his statements.

4 218. Mr. Whitlock is claiming that Howard has made up 5 stories about him and encouraged Deadspin writers to use the word "nigger" twice, in stories about him.¹

7 219. It is apparent that Mr. Howard is trying to create the 8 same sort of mischaracterized racial animus that he attributed
9 to Mr. Johnson by mischaracterizing him and his ideas.²
10

11 220. Mr. Howard and Gawker have a long and continuing 12 history of creating offensive libelous material about those who disagree with them.

14 221. Howard, Trotter, Gawker, and independent content
15 creators Cmcalumna, ChekhovsGum(ItsGonnaPop!) conspired together
16 through Gawkers' "Securedrop" and "burner accounts" systems to 17 deny Plaintiffs' their property right to lawsuits for defamation
18 against the anonymous content creators under the 14th Amendment
19 to the United States Constitution.
20

21 222. Howard, Trotter, Gawker, and independent content
22 creators Cmcalumna, ChekhovsGum(ItsGonnaPop!) conspired together to defame Plaintiffs.
23

24 223. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference, as if 25 fully stated herein, Exhibit 42, consisting of statements A-AJ, 26 for Counts I-IV against Gawker, Howard, and Trotter.
27

1 224. Each of statements A-AJ in Exhibit 42 are provably
2 false, reasonably capable of being interpreted by the trier of 3 fact as having a defamatory meaning, were published with malice,
4 were published with knowledge that they were false or with 5 reckless disregard for their veracity, were not opinions, were 6 not published solely for the purpose of satire or humor, were 7 not neutrally or fairly reported, were not matters of public
8 concern, and were defamatory when taken in their literary 9 contexts.

11 225. As to each of statements A-AJ, supra, Plaintiffs have 12 been damaged in reputation and have suffered pecuniary damages
13 of lost business and lost investments due to damaged business
14 reputation, as well as the need for Plaintiff to file this 15 lawsuit to defend his good name and the related costs from 16 attorney's fees, in an amount exceeding $2,000,000.
17

18 Counts I and II: Defamation and Injurious Falsehood
19 (Against Defendants Gawker and Trotter)

20 226. Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference, as 21 if fully set forth herein, all prior allegations of this
22 Complaint.

23 227. This claim arose in St. Louis County, Missouri.

24 228. However, the claim is also cognizable in California
25 and throughout the United States.

26 229. On or about December 9, 2014 and again on December 15,
27 2014, Defendants Trotter and Gawker composed and published three 28

1 internet news articles including statements about Plaintiff's
2 person and Plaintiff's business.

3 230. Defendant J.K. Trotter was at fault in publishing the 4 articles described in paragraph 64 and knew that the statements
5 were libelous when published.

6 231. The statements described in paragraph 229 (and 223-
7 225) were defamatory in that they asserted -through false
8 statements- that Plaintiff Charles C. Johnson is an unskilled
9 and incompetent journalist and also that during his college life
10 he was involved in a number of unsavory incidents. Specifically,
11 the statements included the following direct quotations:

13 a. From the December 9, 2014 article titled "What is 14 Chuck Johnson, and Why? The Web's Worst Journalist, 15 Explained"

17 i. "The list of Johnson stories that have been 18 proven wrong is long, but his greatest hits include:

19 1. "Erroneously reporting that former
20 Newark mayor Cory Booker didn't actually reside
21 in Newark."

22 2. "Contributing reporting to the Daily
23 Caller's infamous story about New Jersey Senator
24 Bob Menendez allegedly soliciting prostitutes in 25 the Dominican Republic. The story turned out to 26 be a complete fabrication, and may have been 27 planted by the Cuban government."

1 ii. Defendant Trotter states: "Earlier this
2 year, [Johnson] collected screenshots of murdered
3 teenager Michael Brown's Instagram account. (Quoting
4 Johnson,) 'Brown's Instagram account also shows a
5 violent streak that may help explain what led to a
6 violent confrontation with Police officer Darren
7 Wilson,' Johnson wrote. In other words, Brown deserved
8 to die." (emphasis added). This statement contains the 9 induced allegation of fact that Plaintiff asserted
10 Michael Brown deserved to die.

12 b. From the December 15, 2014 article titled, "Which 13 of These Disgusting Chuck Johnson Rumors are True?"

14 i. In bold, "Johnson shit on the floor in 15 college."

17 ii. Defendant Trotter's article then goes on to 18 publish comments from Gawker readers who allege to be 19 former classmates of Plaintiff:

20 1. *"Hilariously, he graduated being best
21 known for pooping on the (I think I'm remembering 22 the floor right) 7th floor of Stark (a dorm). I'm 23 sad this idiot is getting any attention at all,
24 but I hope this guy becomes famous for the same
25 reasons he was in college, his public pooping 26 problems."*

28

1 2. I started two years after him, so I
2 wasn't there since he did it as a freshman or 3 sophomore. But the upperclassman talked about it
4 regularly and it was an undisputed fact that he 5 did it. Multiple people talked about it in great 6 detail [confirmed by another commenter] on the 7 school's paper/website the cmcforum.com and I bet
8 many instances of people talking about it can be 9 seen in the comment archives from 2008-2011.
10

11 iii. In bold, "Johnson fucked a sheep."

12 iv. Defendant Trotter again published comments
13 posted to Gawker from individuals who claim to 14 know Plaintiff:

15 1. Chuck had a 2002 bestiality charge
16 expunged from his record due to his being a 17 minor, 14 at the time.

19 2. A friend is in the San Bernardino
20 County Sheriff Dept. As I heard it, Chuck was 21 about 14, had gone to stay with his cousins [for] 22 a few weeks... He went for a weekend with one to 23 a friend of the cousin's who owned a ranch near 24 Wrightwood.

26 The father of the friend got suspicious when they 27 caught him coming back inside very late the first 28 night. The next night, he apparently wandered

1 back out & got the cops called on him by a
2 neighbor when he was spotted attempting to 3 copulate with his wool sheep. The neighbor took 4 pics with a telephoto lens, which, since the cops
5 didn't catch him mid-act, were used as the basis
6 for his conviction. He was pants-down, pinning
7 the sheep against the fence.

9 The story is still famous in circles of San 10 Bernardino County law enforcement, apparently. He 11 got it expunged in 2007, saying he was just a kid
12 experimenting, and he didn't want it to reflect 13 badly when he was in college working for 14 collegiate newspapers. My friend won't give 15 interviews, because he'd get in trouble for 16 leaking expunged records, but it definitely 17 happened, and word is that the files & pics still 18 exist. Hope that helps!!

20 232. The above statements published by Defendant Trotter
21 are statements of fact that are objectively falsifiable.

22 233. The above statements published by Defendant Trotter
23 are patently false.

24 234. The statements described in 229- 233 (and 223-225)
25 were published online and circulated around the entire United 26 States. The statements were intentionally made available to and 27 read by the general public in the state of Missouri.

1 235. By his online publication of the statements described
2 in paragraphs 229- 233 (and 223-225) Defendant Trotter
3 intentionally targeted the state of Missouri and knew or should
4 have known that residents of the state of Missouri would read
5 the statements.

6 236. The statements tend to deprive plaintiff of the 7 benefit of public confidence and social and business
8 associations, and the defendant published the statements knowing
9 they were defamatory.
10

11 237. Defendant Trotter intended to harm Plaintiff's
12 interests by publishing the statements described in paragraphs 13 229- 233 (and 223-225) or Defendant Trotter recognized or should 14 have recognized that such harm was likely.
15

16 238. As a direct result of the publication of the 17 statements described in paragraphs 229- 233 (and 223-225) has 18 been damaged in reputation, Plaintiff's business has been placed 19 in jeopardy, and Plaintiff has suffered emotional injury, all to 20 his damage in a sum to exceed $2,000,000.

22 239. As a direct result of the publication of the 23 statements described in paragraphs 229- 233 (and 223-225),
24 Plaintiffs Charles C. Johnson and Got News, LLC have been 25 damaged in reputation and have suffered pecuniary damages of 26 lost business and lost investments due to damaged business
27 reputation, as well as the need for Plaintiff to file this 28 lawsuit to defend his good name and the related costs from attorney's fees, in an amount exceeding $2,000,000.

240. Defendant Trotter's conduct in publishing the statements described in paragraphs 229- 233 (and 223-225) was done with knowledge that the statements were false or with reckless disregard for whether they were true or false at a time when defendant had serious doubt as to whether they were true, thereby warranting an award of punitive damages in a sum of not less than $20,000,000.

241. Defendant Trotter was an agent, servant, and employee of Defendant Gawker, and as at all such times acting within the scope and course of his agency and employment; and/or his actions were expressly authorized by Defendant Gawker; and/or his actions were ratified by Defendant Gawker, thus making Defendant Gawker liable for said actions under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants Trotter and Gawker on Counts I and II of this Complaint and for such damages as are fair and reasonable, together with interest and costs, and such other and further relief, as the court shall deem proper.

Counts III and IV: Defamation and Injurious Falsehood
(Against Defendants Gawker and Howard)

232. Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, all prior allegations of this Complaint.

1 233. This claim arose in St. Louis County, Missouri.

2 234. However, the claim is also cognizable in California
3 and throughout the United States.

4 235. On or about December 9, 2014, Defendant Howard
5 composed and published an Internet news article including 6 statements about Plaintiff's person and Plaintiff's business.

7 236. Defendant Greg Howard was at fault in publishing the 8 articles described in paragraph 79 and knew that the statements
9 were libelous when published.

10 237. The statements described in paragraph 245 (and 223-
11 225) as defamatory in that it asserted -through false
12 statements- that Plaintiff Charles C. Johnson is an unskilled
13 and incompetent journalist and also that during his college life
14 he was involved in a number of unsavory incidents. Specifically,
15 the statements included the following direct quotations:

16 a. From the December 9, 2014 article titled "Wait,
17 Did Clowntroll Blogger Chuck Johnson Shit On The Floor One
18 Time?"

19 i. "[Johnson] gets things wrong a lot."
20 ii. Defendant Howard states: "Sure enough, on 21 the Facebook post, there are cryptic comments from 22 friends and former classmates about some mysterious
23 floor-shitting incident"

24 b. In the Comments section, titled "Greg Howard's
25 Discussions," on the article's webpage, Defendant

Howard posts to himself, "Tell you what. There is some good-ass kinja to be had re: Chuck shitting on the floor one time over at Gawker."

i. In the above-mentioned comment posted by Defendant Howard, the words "good-ass kinja" are hyperlinked to a comment by Cmcalumna on a Gawker article titled, "What is Chuck Johnson, and Why? The Web's Worst Journalist, Explained."

ii. Cmcalumna's comment, posted 12/09/14 at 1:05 PM, reads as follows:

1. I started two years after him, so I wasn't there since he did it as a freshman or sophomore. But the upperclassman talked about it regularly and it was an undisputed fact that he did it. Multiple people talked about it in great detail [confirmed by another commenter] on the school's paper/website the cmcforum.com and I bet many instances of people talking about it can be seen in the comment archives from 2008-2011.

238. The above statements published by Defendant Howard are statements of fact that are objectively falsifiable.

239. The above statements published by Defendant Howard are patently false.

240. The statements described in paragraphs 245-249 (and 223-225) were published online and circulated around the entire

1 United States. The statements were intentionally made available
2 to and read by the general public in the state of Missouri.

3 241. By his publication of the statements described in 4 paragraphs 245-249 (and 223-225) online, Defendant Howard
5 intentionally targeted the state of Missouri and knew or should
6 have known that residents of the state of Missouri would read
7 the statements.

8 242. The statements tend to deprive plaintiff of the 9 benefit of public confidence and social and business
10 associations, and the defendant published the statements knowing
11 they were defamatory.

13 243. Defendant Howard intended to harm Plaintiff's
14 interests by publishing the statements described in paragraphs 15 245-249 (and 223-225), or Defendant Howard recognized or should 16 have recognized that such harm was likely.

18 244. Defendant Howard was an agent, servant, and employee
19 of Defendant Gawker, and as at all such times acting within the 20 scope and course of his agency and employment; and/or his 21 actions were expressly authorized by Defendant Gawker; and/or 22 his actions were ratified by Defendant Gawker, thus making 23 Defendant Gawker liable for said actions under the doctrine of 24 respondeat superior.

26 245. As a direct result of the publication of the 27 statements described in 245-249 (and 223-225) Plaintiff has been 28 damaged in reputation, Plaintiff's business has been placed in

1 jeopardy, and Plaintiff has suffered emotional injury, all to
2 his damage in a sum to exceed $2,000,000.

3 246. As a direct result of the publication of the
4 statements described in paragraphs 245-249 (and 223-225)
5 Plaintiffs Charles C. Johnson and Got News, LLC have been
6 damaged in reputation and have suffered pecuniary damages of 7 lost business and lost investments due to damaged business
8 reputation, as well as the need for Plaintiff to file this
9 lawsuit to defend his good name and the related costs from 10 attorney's fees, in an amount exceeding $2,000,000.

12 247. Defendant Howard's conduct in publishing the 13 statements described in paragraphs 245-249 (and 223-225) was 14 done with knowledge that the statements were false or with 15 reckless disregard for whether they were true or false at a time
16 when defendant had serious doubt as to whether they were true,
17 thereby warranting an award of punitive damages in a sum of not 18 less than $20,000,000.

20 WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against defendants in 21 Count III and IV of his Complaint and for such damages as are 22 fair and reasonable, together with interest and costs, and such 23 other and further relief, as the court shall deem proper.
24

25 Count V: Invasion of Privacy - False Light
(Against All Defendants)

26 232. Plaintiff restates and incorporates by reference, as 27 if fully set forth herein, all prior allegations of this
28 Complaint.

1 233. Defendants have given publicity to fictional matters
2 not of public concern, and have falsely and publicly attributed
3 these fictional and outrageous acts to Plaintiffs in an effort
4 to harm Plaintiffs.

5 234. Defendants have twisted Plaintiff's words and the 6 context in which they were made to such an extraordinary degree
7 as to give them a highly offensive meaning not originally 8 present, all in an effort to harm Plaintiffs.

9 235. Defendants have presented Plaintiffs to the public in 10 a false light, and either knew precisely that they were 11 misrepresenting Plaintiffs to the public, or Defendants acted in 12 reckless disregard as to the falsity of the publicized matter
13 and the false light in which Plaintiffs would be placed.

14 236. As a direct result of the publication of the 15 statements described in Counts I-IV, Plaintiff has been damaged
16 in reputation, Plaintiff's business has been placed in jeopardy,
17 and Plaintiff has suffered emotional injury, all to his damage
18 in a sum to exceed $2,000,000.

19 237. As a direct result of the publication of the 20 statements described in Counts I-IV, Plaintiffs Charles C.
21 Johnson and Got News, LLC have been damaged in reputation and
22 have suffered pecuniary damages of lost business and lost
23 business investments, due to damaged business reputation, as 24 well as the need for Plaintiff to file this lawsuit to defend 25

1 his good name and the related costs from attorney's fees, in an
2 amount exceeding $2,000,000.

3 238. Defendants' conduct in publishing the statements
4 described in Counts I-IV was done with knowledge that the 5 statements were false or with reckless disregard for whether 6 they were true or false at a time when defendant had serious
7 doubt as to whether they were true, thereby warranting an award
8 of punitive damages in a sum of not less than $20,000,000.

10 WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants on 11 Count V of this Complaint and for such damages as are fair and 12 reasonable, together with interest and costs, and such other and 13 further relief as the court shall deem proper.

COUNT VI-42 U.S.C. § 1983 - Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil 15 Rights

16 Under the Fourteenth Amendment

17 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

19 232. The allegations contained in all paragraphs above are 20 incorporated by reference as if fully set forth.

22 233. Because of Defendants' use of "securedrop" and "burner
23 accounts," Plaintiffs are unable to identify anonymous content
24 creators Cmcalumna and ChekhovsGum(ItsGonnaPop!).

25 234. For the same reasons, Plaintiffs are unable to serve
26 the anonymous content creators with a lawsuit for defamation,
27 and are thus unable to exercise their right to bring defamation
28 claims against the independent content creators.

1 235. Defendants have conspired for the purpose of depriving
2 Plaintiffs their right to file a defamation lawsuit under the 3 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Zinermon
4 v. Burch, 494 u.s. 113 (1990).

5 236. Specifically, Defendants Gawker, Trotter, and Howard
6 conspired with anonymous content creators Cmcalumna and 7 ChekhovsGum(ItsGonnaPop!) and others to defame Plaintiffs and 8 deprive them of their civil rights by inciting defamatory
9 rumors, developing means to keep anonymous content creators
10 identities a secret, by then hiding behind the anonymous unpaid 11 content creators while publishing the defamatory statements, and 12 by refusing and potentially destroying any information which 13 would allow the anonymous content creators to be identified.

15 237. Defendant Gawker has demonstrated a track record and a 16 procedure, which Plaintiffs have established, of inciting
17 defamatory statements from anonymous content creators,
18 publishing said statements, and then skirting liability by 19 carefully and subtly publishing their own thoughts on the 20 statements without confirming or denying them, playing it all 21 off as "news."
22

23 238. Defendants are state actors by virtue of their use of 24 CDA § 230, in that they use that statute as a shield to enable 25 them to take otherwise illegal and unconstitutional actions.
26

28

1 239. When a state actor inserts itself between an 2 individual and the individual's realization of his rights, such 3 is Constitutionally impermissible.

4 240. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs Charles C.
5 Johnson and Got News, LLC have been damaged in reputation and
6 have suffered pecuniary damages of lost business and lost
7 business investments, due to damaged business reputation, as
8 well as the need for Plaintiff to file this lawsuit to defend 9 his good name and the related costs from attorney's fees, in an
10 amount exceeding $2,000,000.

12 WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants
13 on Count VI of this Complaint and for such damages as are fair
14 and reasonable, together with interest and costs, and such other 15 and further relief as the court shall deem proper.

17 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

18 Plaintiff requests a trial by jury, on all issues in this 19 case which are so triable.
